

the attendance of jurors for the next two succeeding terms of said court.

113. A certificate signed by the clerk of said court, expressing the number of days which any juror may have attended, and the sum due for such attendance, shall be sufficient authority for the collectors of said county to pay the amount therein specified.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

114. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Kent county, to wit: for election district number one, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and three constables.

115. All constables in said county shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the fifty cents they are by law allowed, the sum of eight cents per mile for every mile they may have to travel to and from the jail in Chestertown, in delivering to the jailer of said county any person charged with a breach of the peace or any criminal offence, the distance to be computed from the place where the commitment shall be issued, and from the jail to the residence of the constable; but no constable shall receive more than four dollars for any one delivery; the same shall be paid in such cases only as the county commissioners, in their discretion, shall allow as a reasonable compensation for the extra trouble and risk he may incur.

116. In all cases where a writ of venditioni exponas shall be returned by any constable to any justice of the peace for Kent county, and the property, or any part thereof mentioned in said writ shall remain unsold, and the debt not fully satisfied, it shall be the duty of the justice to enter the date of such return on his docket, and thereupon deliver the said writ to the constable, who shall take such proceedings in all respects under the said writ so delivered to him, for the period of one year from the date of such return, as could be had in virtue of renewal from time to time of such writ; and within the period of one year from the return as aforesaid of any writ of venditioni exponas, it shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace to issue any second writ of venditioni exponas, or any renewals thereof; and under the original writ thus re-delivered to the constable, he shall remain under the same
