

legal obligation to sell the property therein mentioned, and to make the plaintiff's claim; and his official bond shall be liable to the plaintiff in any such execution for non-performance of duty, in the same manner as it is where such writ may be renewed every forty days; but nothing herein shall be construed to affect the rights of any representative or security of a deceased constable, to have new process issued.

LANDINGS.

117. The proceedings for the establishment, making, altering or closing any public landing in Kent county, shall be in all respects the same prescribed by the laws of this State for the opening, altering or closing roads.

118. No lot or piece of ground condemned for a public landing in Kent county shall exceed one acre of land in extent.

MILLINGTON.

119. The white male citizens of Millington in Kent county, including therein the place formerly called Sandtown, in Queen Anne's county, residing and having families therein, shall, on the second Saturday of March annually, between the hours of two and five o'clock, P. M., elect five inhabitants of said town as commissioners, for one year from the first day of April next ensuing, and the said commissioners, by the name of "The Commissioners of Millington," are a body politic, with power to sue and be sued, and to have and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure.

120. The said commissioners shall give at least ten days' public notice of said election, and any justice of the peace may preside thereat, and if no justice be present at the time of holding said election, the commissioners, or a majority of them, may hold the same.

121. If any thing shall prevent the said election from being held on the day appointed, the commissioners, or a majority of them, shall appoint another day for holding the same, and shall give notice thereof at least five days previous thereto; and the commissioners shall fill up all vacancies in their own body which may happen within the year.
