

ing of the taxables of the district, when they may deem such meeting necessary.

175. They shall judge of the qualifications of teachers, and may employ and discharge them.

176. They shall repair the school house of their district or build a new school house, when a majority of the taxables of the district shall direct the same to be done; and shall furnish the necessary stationery, books and fuel; and shall pay the clerk elected as aforesaid, not exceeding fifty dollars per annum.

177. Whenever money is wanted for any of the purposes mentioned in the preceding section, the white male taxable inhabitants of such district, or a majority of them, in a meeting called for that purpose, shall ascertain the sum necessary to be raised by taxation, and the trustees of such district shall certify to the county commissioners the fact that the taxable inhabitants of the district desire a certain sum, to be stated in such certificate, to be levied on the personal property of such district.

178. Upon the receipt of such certificate by the county commissioners, they shall proceed to levy the sum mentioned, together with the cost of collection, on the real and personal property of such school district, and have the same collected as county taxes are, and paid over to the trustees of such district.

179. All the white children of a district shall be taught free of any charge in the school thereof.

180. The trustees may expel any pupil from the school at any time for immorality, or extraordinary or continued insubordination, or gross inattention, or other improper conduct.

181. The trustees of the several school districts may receive or reject scholars residing in other school districts of the county, as the necessities of their respective districts and justice to children, residents thereof, may require.

182. The clerk of the Circuit Court for said county shall be treasurer of the school fund of said county, and the proportion of the State school fund, payable to said county, shall be paid to him or his order by the Treasurer of the State.
