

183. His official bond as clerk shall be liable for the faithful and punctual payment and disbursement thereof, and may be sued by the trustees for the time being of any school district or a majority of them, or by the district in its corporate capacity.

184. He shall, in the month of November in each year, apportion said fund equally among the several school districts that shall have reported to him.

185. He shall, under a penalty of one hundred dollars, annually, on or before the last Monday of December, report to the Treasurer of the State a full and detailed account of the manner in which he has disposed of the same.

186. Each organized school district shall be a corporation by the name of "School District in ——— District of Kent county, No. ———," with power to take and hold by devise, bequest and donation, real and personal estate, not exceeding in clear annual income five hundred dollars, for the use of the primary school in said district, and may alien and sell the same, when in the opinion of the trustees of said district it will be for the interest and advantage of the primary school in said district, and invest the money arising from the sale in some safe and profitable stock, and the dividends received from the same apply to the use of such primary school; and in their corporate name prosecute and maintain actions for injury done to the grounds, houses, property, school houses, appurtenances and furniture, and sue for and recover all moneys due them for real and personal property to which they may be entitled.

187. The trustees of primary schools in each election district shall constitute a board of commissioners of primary schools for such election district, and shall visit each primary school in their election district quarterly, or oftener if they shall deem it necessary, and examine into the condition of such school and give their advice and direction to teachers.

188. The county commissioners of said county shall annually levy a sum equal in amount to the net and clear sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for each primary school district in said county, which shall have been reported to them as hereinbefore directed, for the support of primary schools, and the sum so levied shall be collected by the collector of the county, and paid