

borhood of the school district where a change is desired to be made, whose duty it shall be to lay out a new district, or make such changes in the districts then existing as they, or a majority of them, may think the public convenience may require.

193. The school districts laid out by such trustees shall be entitled to all the privileges and subject to all the regulations appertaining to primary school districts in said county; whenever the trustees so appointed shall be of opinion that the public interests would be served by removing any primary school house then used as a primary school, they may cause the same to be removed to such location as they or a majority of them shall be of opinion will best accommodate the people of said district; the expense thereof to be borne by the district in which the house may be located.

194. The county commissioners shall levy upon the assessable property of the additional district prayed for and created, a sum sufficient to pay the expense of locating the same.

SHERIFF.

195. The sheriff of said county shall be entitled to a sum not exceeding fifty cents a day for each State prisoner confined in jail.

WILD FOWL.

196. No person shall shoot at wild fowl in the waters of Kent county by night from any skiff, float or other boat, with a gun of any description whatever, nor in the daytime from any skiff, float or other boat, with any gun which cannot conveniently be fired at arm's length without rest.

197. It shall be the duty of any justice of the peace of said county adjacent to said waters, upon sight thereof, or upon information given him upon oath, that any person is violating or has violated the provisions of the foregoing section, to issue a warrant to the sheriff or a constable of the county for the immediate apprehension of such person; and if he shall be convicted thereof before the said justice, he shall forfeit the skiff, float or other boat and gun to the informer, and pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the county.
