

aforesaid section 204th of this article, he shall impose fines of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars on each person engaged, directly or indirectly, therein for each offence, and may commit him or them to the county jail in default of payment, if the party making the arrest and seizure desire it; and if committed, the officer who desired the commitment shall pay the jail fees at the rate of twenty-five cents per day; and in case of failure to pay the said fees for the space of three consecutive days, the party whose jail fees shall thus remain unpaid shall be discharged.

209. The justice shall also condemn as forfeited to the said officer, and to the person or persons who may have aided him in making the arrest and seizure, the boat or vessel in the possession of the offender, together with her papers, furniture, tackle and apparel, and all things on board of her at the time of her seizure, and all property in the possession of the said officer, (owned, seized and taken as aforesaid,) and the said officer, with the person or persons who aided him in making the arrest and seizure, shall sell the same to the highest bidder after ten days' notice.

210. If any person convicted of offending against the provisions of section 204th of this article shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he may appeal from the judgment of the justice, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the Circuit Court for said county.

211. The said court, upon such appeal, in a summary way and without any unnecessary delay shall hear the allegations and proofs in the case, and shall affirm or reverse the judgment of the justice, as to the said court may seem right, and in case of affirming, shall adjudge to the State the costs incurred in defending said appeal.

212. The appellant shall, in his election, have a decision in a summary way, or a trial before a jury in said Circuit Court.

213. The proceedings on the judgment of the justice shall not be stayed by any appeal, unless the appellant, within ten days after the rendition of the same, shall enter into an appeal bond to the State, with two sufficient securities to be approved by the said justice, in a penal sum of double the amount in value of the boat or vessel and property seized and the fines imposed, to be
