

justices of the peace, that may be made liens upon land, by complying with the law relating thereto, and shall be allowed the usual fees therefor, to be taxed to the plaintiff.

CRIER.

33. The county commissioners of said county shall annually levy such sum of money as will, in their judgment, compensate the crier of the Circuit Court.

ELECTIONS.

34. Montgomery county is divided into five election districts, according to their present bounds and limits; and elections for all public officers shall be held in each of said districts at the place heretofore established by law for that purpose.

35. The judges and clerks of election in said county shall each be entitled to the sum of three dollars per day, for every election at which they shall respectively attend, and act as judges or clerks, and for making returns of said elections.

JURORS.

36. The county commissioners of said county shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be incurred the then succeeding year by the attendance of jurors at the Circuit Court.

37. The collector of said county shall pay jurors immediately after the termination of each court, such sum of money as they may severally be entitled to receive for their attendance thereat.

38. A certificate signed by the clerk of said court, and expressing the number of days any juror may have attended, and the sum due him for such attendance, shall be sufficient authority to the collector to pay the amount specified therein.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

39. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Montgomery county: for election district number one, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, three justices of the peace and two
