

50. They shall not call on such negroes to labor more than two days in any one year, and they shall make and return to the county commissioners a correct list of all male negroes liable to such call, and the county commissioners, in the event of any excess of labor in any one district in said county, may make such regulations as will secure such labor in some other district.

51. Any free negro called on by the supervisor as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time and place by him appointed, or upon attending, shall refuse and neglect to perform the work required of him, shall pay a fine not exceeding one dollar, to be recovered at the instance of the supervisor, in the name of the State, before a justice of the peace of the county, and accounted for by the supervisor.

52. If any person shall alter or change, or in any manner obstruct or encroach upon any public road in said county, or cut down, destroy or injure any of the bridges, causeways, boundaries, marks or directions therein or thereon, he shall, on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court, be fined in the discretion of the court, in any sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars, according to the nature and degree of the offence; such fine to be appropriated to the repair of such damages and improving the roads in said county, and to be paid to the supervisor of the district in which the damage shall be done.

ROCKVILLE.

53*. The inhabitants of the town of Rockville in Montgomery county are a body corporate by the name of The Commissioners for Rockville, and by that name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

54*. The limits of said town shall begin at the corner of the lots of Mrs. Elizabeth Braddock, and of that occupied by Zachariah Holland, on the Darenstown Road, thence to the south-west corner of the lot of the male academy, and of the lot of Basil Barry, thence to the female academy, thence to the south end of the street or lane between the lots of Price and Stonestreet, thence to the corner of Austin's lot, thence to the south-east corner of Bowie's lot, and of the fair ground or the Georgetown turnpike, thence to the north-east corner of the lot of Samuel C. Viers, next to Brewer's and England's land, thence to the north corner of Beall's lot in England's lane, thence to