

and shall discharge such other duties as the commissioners may require.

60*. The voters of the town shall, annually, at the time of electing commissioners, elect a chief bailiff, and the commissioners shall appoint a person to fill any vacancy which may occur in said office during the year, and shall appoint such underbailiffs as they may deem expedient.

61*. The commissioners shall annually appoint a supervisor of the streets.

62*. The commissioners shall allow their clerk and supervisor, the chief bailiff and underbailiff, such compensation for their services as the commissioners may deem reasonable.

63*. The commissioners and all other officers of the corporation, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their office, take an oath that they will diligently and faithfully, to the best of their judgment, discharge the duties of their office, without favor, partiality or prejudice, and shall file the certificate of the officer before whom the same was taken, thereof, amongst the records of the corporation.

64*. The clerk and chief bailiff shall give bond to the commissioners in such penalty, and with such securities as the commissioners may require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the office of bailiff or clerk.

65*. The commissioners shall receive all election returns and determine all questions arising thereon; and any person conceiving himself aggrieved by reason of any such decision may appeal to the Circuit Court, which shall hear and determine the same, and determine who shall pay the costs of appeal.

66*. The commissioners may pass such ordinances not contrary to law as they may deem beneficial to the town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys; grade and pave the same, remove nuisances, and obstructions therefrom, restrain all disorder and disturbances, prevent all congregations of negroes in public places, apprehend and fine all vagabonds, impose a tax on dogs, geese and hogs running at large in the streets, and may impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of their
