

ELECTIONS.

57. Prince George's county is divided into nine election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and elections shall be held in each district at the places heretofore established for that purpose.

58. The judges and clerks of election in said county, shall receive three dollars a day for each day they may act in the discharge of their official duties.

HUCKSTERS.

59. No person shall purchase for sale any hogs, or poultry of any description whatever, within the limits of Prince George's county, without first obtaining a license from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county.

60. Each person applying for such license, shall pay the sum of fifty dollars to the said clerk, and the clerk shall account for and pay to the Treasurer of the State the money so received, at the same time and in the same manner as other money received by him for the use of the State.

61. Any person who shall violate the provisions of section 59 of this article, shall, upon conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for said county, be fined the sum of one hundred dollars, one-half to the person who shall prosecute the same with effect, and the other half to the State.

JURORS.

62. The sheriff of said county, at each term of the Circuit Court for said county, shall summon seventy-three qualified persons to attend said court as jurors.

63. When the sheriff of said county shall make return of the persons summoned to any term of the Circuit Court for said county, the clerk shall immediately open the same, and place the names of the persons summoned as jurors on separate ballots, and draw the same separately from a box, or other suitable receptacle, and arrange the same, as drawn, into separate lists as grand and petit jurors, and divide the petit jurors into two panels, one of which shall serve during the first week of the
