

court, and the other during the second week; and the court may make such order for the alternate attendance of the said panels during the sessions of the court as the court may deem necessary.

64. The clerk shall publish a copy of the said lists of jurors in every newspaper printed within said county, for two successive weeks, the same to be inserted in each of them for the first time in the issue thereof next after said drawing and assortment.

65. The persons who shall on said lists be allotted to serve during the second week of the court, and whose names shall be so published, shall be exempt from attending said court during the first week of its session, unless specially required by the court to be in attendance.

66. Each juror attending said court shall be entitled to two dollars a day for each day's attendance, and if he reside more than six miles from the court-house he shall be entitled to ten cents a mile for every mile over six miles he shall travel going to court; Provided, he shall receive no more than one dollar for mileage for any one day; and whenever a jury is empanelled in any case, and the jurors remain during the night in Marlborough by order of the court, they shall receive one dollar in addition to their per diem, and in lieu of mileage for that day.

67. The county commissioners of said county shall annually levy a sum of money, not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars, for the pay of the jurors attending the Circuit Court for said county, and deposit the same in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, at Annapolis, or in some bank in the District of Columbia, to the credit of the said commissioners, or they may, in their discretion, direct the collector of the county tax to pay the jurors of said county out of the money so levied such sum as may be due to them respectively.

68. A certificate signed by the clerk of the said Circuit Court and expressing the number of days any juror may have attended, and the sum due him therefor, shall be sufficient authority to the cashier of the bank in which the said money may be deposited, or the collector of the county tax, as the case may be, to pay the amount therein specified.