

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

69. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for said county, to wit: For election district number one, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number three, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number four, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number five, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number six, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seven, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eight, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number nine, two justices of the peace and two constables.

70. The several constables within said county shall receive the following fees: for serving all summons and return, fifty cents; for levying fieri facias and return, fifty cents; for dispersing tumultuous meetings of negroes, per year, such sum as the county commissioners may think proper to allow, not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

LUMBER INSPECTION.

71. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall biennially appoint an inspector of lumber at Bristol, in Anne Arundel county, and Clagett's Landing, Queen Anne, Mount Calvert, Green Landing and Wapping, in Prince George's county; whose duty it shall be to inspect all lumber that shall be brought to said places for sale.

72. The said inspector shall be entitled to demand and receive, as compensation for his services, twenty-five cents for every thousand feet, board measure, and twenty-five cents per thousand for all shingles he shall inspect, exclusive of all expenses of labor.

73. If any person shall bring lumber for sale to either of the places mentioned in the 71st section of this article, and shall refuse to have it inspected by said inspector when called upon for such purpose, he shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars for each refusal, recoverable before any justice of the peace for Prince
