

license is intended to be used for the benefit of the person only in whose name the same is applied for, or for the use or benefit of any other person.

139. The said clerk shall not grant such license if it shall appear that the same is not intended for the sole use and benefit of the person applying for the same, under the penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered as small debts are, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the county.

140. Whenever any trader shall be brought before the Circuit Court for said county or the judge thereof, under the provisions of section 136 of this article, the court or judge shall examine by the oath of the party charged, and by any other competent witness brought before him, whether the party charged was dealing on his own account or on the account of any other person.

141. If the court or judge shall be satisfied that the party has been dealing on account of any other person, the court shall give the facts and circumstances in charge to the grand jury then sitting or at the next term of the court thereafter.

ROADS.

142. The Supervisors of public roads in Anne Arundel county shall mend the public roads within their districts by the fifteenth of August in every year, and upon failure to do so the commissioners of the county may authorize the owner of any land through which any public road may pass, and which shall not have been mended by said day, to mend the same.

143. The county commissioners shall require from any owner of lands, who shall mend the public roads agreeably to the last preceding section, an account, under oath, stating the number of hands and teams employed and the length of road mended, and shall, if the same be reasonable, allow such account.

144. The supervisors of roads may call upon any free negro residing within their several districts, not being under eighteen or over forty-five years of age, excepting such as are employed by the year by a white citizen, or whose assessable property exceeds the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to labor in repairing the roads in said county.
