

market, and the said clerk shall have a reasonable compensation for his services, to be fixed by the said commissioners.

61. The clerk of the market shall take charge of the market house and market, and shall examine and inspect the victuals and provisions brought thereto for sale, and if any shall be found unsound or unwholesome, shall seize and destroy the same.

62. He shall examine and try the weight of any butter brought to the said market, and if short of weight, shall seize and sell the same at public sale.

63. He shall try the weights, scales and measures used at said market by the standards of the county, and if any be found false or untrue, shall seize the same, and after they are properly adjusted, sell them at public sale, and shall account for the proceeds of all sales under this and the preceding section, to the said commissioners.

64. All fines, penalties and forfeitures which may be incurred under the provisions of this article relating to the town of Centreville, shall be recovered before a justice of the peace for Queen Anne's county, in the name of the said commissioners, as small debts, and applied to the benefit of said town.

CHURCH HILL.

65. The free white male housekeepers or heads of families residing in the village of Church Hill, in Queen Anne's county, and persons holding real property therein, shall, on the third Monday of March annually, at some public place in said village, elect by ballot three persons residing in said village, commissioners of Church Hill.

66. If any vacancy shall happen in the office of commissioner by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the remaining commissioners shall cause an election to be held to supply the same, and ten days' previous notice shall be given of such election.

67. The said commissioners may mark and bound the limits of said village to any extent to which the property of the inhabitants may extend, and may enact such by-laws or ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem proper for the preservation of order in said village, and such by-laws shall be recorded in a