

83. He shall, in addition to the perquisites and fees allowed by the said sheriff or keeper of the jail, be entitled to a residence in said jail for himself and family, free from rent, upon his keeping the several apartments in his possession in sufficient repair, and taking care of the entire premises.

84. He shall be entitled to receive for boarding and keeping any prisoner or runaway negro in said jail, the sum of fifty cents per day, and to an annual allowance from said county sufficient to furnish fuel for the comfort and benefit of said prisoners.

85. He shall, during his continuance in office, be disqualified from holding any ordinary house of entertainment, and from retailing spirituous liquors.

86. He shall not sell spirituous liquors, nor cause or suffer them to be sold, to any of the prisoners confined in said jail, or to any person for their use, and upon conviction thereof he shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars.

87. The county commissioners for said county may employ a blacksmith by the year, to do the necessary iron work at the said jail.

JURORS.

88. Each juror summoned upon the regular panel of jurors to the Circuit Court for said county, shall receive for each day he shall attend as juror, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, and six and a quarter cents a mile for every mile his place of residence shall be distant from the place of holding the said court, such mileage to be allowed for each day, but not in returning to his residence.

89. The county commissioners shall levy annually, one year in advance, such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to defray the expenses of jurors for the ensuing year.

90. The county collector shall, immediately after the termination of every court, pay to the jurors such sums as they may severally be entitled to receive for their attendance at that court.

91. A certificate signed by the clerk of the Circuit Court, expressing the number of days any juror may have attended said court and the sum due him for such attendance, including the
