

119*. Vacancies in the said board of trustees, which from any cause shall occur during the year, shall be filled by the taxable inhabitants at special meetings called as provided in the preceding section.

120*. The commissioners of the school fund shall annually appoint three sensible and discreet men to constitute a board of examiners, whose duty it shall be to examine all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of primary schools.

121. They shall appoint, annually, a treasurer of the school fund of said county, whose duty it shall be to take charge of all moneys derived from the State or from said county for the use of the primary schools of said county, and the same to keep and pay over to the order of any two or more of said commissioners.

122. The said treasurer, before receiving any of said funds, shall annually give bond to the State of Maryland, with such security and in such sum as they shall direct, for the faithful discharge of the duties of said office, which bond shall be liable, at the suit of the State of Maryland for the use of said commissioners, for all breaches of the condition thereof.

123. They may allow said treasurer such compensation as they think proper.

124*. The county commissioners of Queen Anne's county shall annually levy such sums of money as will give to each primary school district in said county and the Centreville district the net and clear sum of three hundred dollars, to be ascertained and prescribed by the commissioners of the school fund, and shall, if authorized by the taxable inhabitants of school district number four, or any other district in the county, levy such additional sum on the said district for the use thereof as a majority of the taxable inhabitants present at the annual meeting may require, not to exceed two hundred dollars per annum, and the said sums so levied shall be collected and paid to the treasurer of the school fund, and the collector of said county shall collect and pay the same to the treasurer of the school fund, and shall be allowed the same percentage as for the collection of county taxes, and his official bond shall be liable therefor.
