

125*. The commissioners of the school fund shall hold their meetings twice a year, in Centreville, that is, on the first Tuesday in July and January, to appropriate all moneys which may come into the hands of the treasurer equally among the primary school districts of said county, including the Centreville district, and the said treasurer shall pay the same to the trustees of the primary school districts and of Centreville Academy, upon the order of any two of said commissioners. They may adjourn their meetings from time to time as they may think proper, and shall be entitled to two dollars per day for every day they may attend.

126. It shall be the duty of the board of examiners to ascertain and inform themselves of the qualification of all persons who offer themselves as teachers, and if satisfied of the sufficiency of such qualification, they shall deliver to the applicant the following certificate: "We, the undersigned, board of examiners for Queen Anne's county, certify that we have examined —, and believe that he is of good moral character and of sufficient learning and ability, and in other respects well qualified to teach the usual branches of a good English education. Given under our hands at —, the — day of —. —, Board of Examiners."

127. The board of examiners shall be entitled to receive as a compensation two dollars for each applicant to whom they shall grant a certificate, to be paid by the applicant at the time of receiving the same.

128. The trustees of any school district shall be able to hold any property which may be vested in them for the use and benefit of their school; and such property, whether real or personal, shall be to them and their successors in office in the same manner as if they were a body corporate.

129. They shall purchase sites for school houses, build, keep in repair, and furnish the same with fuel, books, stationery and appendages.

130*. The taxable inhabitants of each district, at their annual meeting for the election of trustees, shall have power to levy a tax for the purchase of sites and building school houses.

131*. The taxables of any school district, when assembled to elect trustees, may vote such a tax upon the assessable property
