

be made and returned by such justice of the peace to the said commissioners, to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

42. The said commissioners may meet and adjourn from time to time, as they shall see fit; and shall on the first meeting after said election choose from their own body a president, who shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, vote on all questions before them, and remain in office until superseded by the appointment of a new president, and after a new election of commissioners.

43. If any of the commissioners shall die, resign, or remove from the said village, be non compos mentis, or otherwise disqualified, during the year for which he may be elected, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held, at which all persons qualified to vote at a regular election shall be entitled to vote.

44. If the citizens of said village at any time neglect to make an election at the time before mentioned, the power of electing commissioners shall not therefore cease; but the power of the inhabitants of said village in that respect, shall continue the same as though such an election had been made, and the commissioners for the time being shall continue and remain in office until such election shall be held.

45. The limits of the village of Leonard Town shall be as established, marked and bounded by the commissioners, and recorded among their proceedings.

46. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, may appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation as they may think proper; and all ordinances passed by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall by their clerk be entered in a book by him to be kept for that purpose; and shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested; and copies of all ordinances shall be published or put up in the most public places of said village.

47. The said commissioners may levy and collect taxes in said village, not exceeding in any one year fifteen cents in the hundred dollars on the assessable property of said village; and, for the purpose of making said levy, they shall once in every two years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who
