

favor, partiality or prejudice; and a certificate of such qualification shall be made and returned by such justice to the commissioners, to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

108. The said commissioners shall meet on the first Monday of April, and on the third Monday of every third month thereafter, and as much oftener as they shall judge necessary.

109. They may appoint and qualify a clerk, who shall keep a record of their proceedings in well bound books, to be provided by them for that purpose, and to be subject to the examination of any person interested therein.

110. They shall annually, in the month of May, appoint a bailiff, and shall prescribe his duties, and require him to give satisfactory security.

111. They may appoint a supervisor of streets, lanes and alleys of the town and precincts, and may order and direct in what manner the streets, lanes and alleys shall be kept and repaired; and the inhabitants of the said town and precincts shall not be compelled to do any labor on the public roads in said county, beyond the said town and precincts, or to pay any sum for keeping the same in repair.

112. They may allow their clerk, bailiff and supervisor of streets, such compensation as they may deem reasonable.

113. They may cause all nuisances and obstructions to be removed from the streets, lanes and alleys of said town and precincts; may cause the streets to be repaired, improved or paved, and provide means for the purpose; may cause a register to be made, kept, and from time to time corrected, of all persons entitled to vote for commissioners of said town, and may make such by-laws for the regulation and good government of the said town and precincts and the inhabitants thereof, and to restrain disorders and disturbances, and prevent nuisances, inconveniences and annoyances within the same, as they may deem proper, not contrary to law, and may impose reasonable fines and forfeitures for a breach of any by-laws by them made.

114. They may cause an assessment of all the property, real and personal, within the limits of the town and precincts, to be made from time to time by an assessor by them appointed and
