

habitant, or if not an inhabitant of said town, one dollar, to be accounted for and paid over by the said bailiff to the commissioners, after deducting the sum of twenty cents for each hog for his trouble.

133. If the owner shall refuse to pay the said sum, the bailiff shall sell such swine at public sale, and account for and pay over the proceeds of sale as directed in the preceding section.

134. Whenever any swine shall be taken up by the bailiff, he shall advertise the same at the court-house door and at each tavern in the town, describing the marks and size of such swine, and if the owner thereof shall not make claim thereto within seven days, and pay the sum of two dollars, or one dollar as the case may be, the bailiff shall sell said swine, and shall account for and pay over the proceeds of such sale as directed in the preceding section; and in all cases the bailiff shall be entitled to six cents a day for each swine by him impounded.

135. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or by any ordinance of said town, may be recovered in the name of the commissioners of Princess Anne, as small debts, before any justice of the peace of Somerset county, and the bailiff of said town shall have the power and be entitled to the fees of a constable in the collection thereof, and such fines, penalties and forfeitures, and the money arising from the rent of stalls and shambles in the market house, shall be applied by the commissioners to the improvement of the town.

136. The bounds of said town shall be as described on a plat thereof on record in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset county; the eastern precincts of said town shall contain all those lots of ground which are embraced by the line extending from Bombay Hook bridge along the back of Disharoon's, Doctor Jones', Colonel Handy's, and the lot formerly occupied by Israel Planter, to the county road leading to Snow Hill; the southern precincts shall contain all those lots of ground which are embraced by the line extending westerly along the said county road till it crosses the town parallel with the southern extremity thereof and reaches the sink or gully extending in the rear of L. D. Teackle's grounds; the western precincts shall embrace all persons residing within one hundred feet from the alley which bounds the town on the west, and all the land lying between said alley and a line drawn parallel with said alley at
