

the distance of one hundred feet therefrom, that is to say: beginning at a point on the side of the road leading from said alley to the steam mill bridge, at the distance of one hundred feet from said alley, and running southward and parallel with said alley the whole extent thereof; and the northern precincts shall contain all those lots which are embraced by the line extending from the margin of the Menokin River, opposite the branch or gully on the western side of Gideon Pearce's grounds, thence up the said gully to the northern extremity thereof, and thence by a line extending easterly with the northern extremity of said Pearce's grounds, passing the lot of William Crockett, the meeting house and the county road, to the northeast branch of the said river, and thence by and with the said river to the bridge of Bombay Hook, these being the boundaries of said precincts contained in the act of eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter seventy-three, and the act of eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and twenty.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

137. The Register of Wills of Somerset county, in the recess of the Orphans' Court of said county, may pass any account or claim against the estate of a deceased person for any amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, and on the return of any inventory of the personal estate of a deceased person, may pass an order for a sale of the property contained therein.

RETAILERS.

138. No licensed retailer of spirituous liquors in said county shall be held to answer for any violation of the provisions of law forbidding spirituous liquors to be drank in and about their premises, but such prohibition shall be inoperative in said county.

139. No person shall sell nor keep for sale any spirituous or intoxicating liquors within the bounds of Tangier district, being district number fifteen of Somerset county, and the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county shall not grant any license for any such sale or disposal; nor shall any person give away such liquor, or keep it with the intent to give away, (but as a medicine by physicians or for sacramental purposes,) in any tavern, store, grocery, shop, boarding or victualling house, or place of public amusement, or any place connected therewith; nor shall it be lawful to deposit any such liquor, except in a dwelling house, or