

article, and shall be subject to the penalties imposed for such violation.

145. Any person may appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace imposing any fine or imprisonment under the 141st section of this article to the Circuit Court for the county then next ensuing, unless there shall not be ten days intervening between the rendition of the judgment and the sitting of the said court, in which case the appeal shall stand for trial at the succeeding session of the court; Provided, the party appealing shall enter into good and sufficient recognizance before the justice to prosecute his appeal with effect.

146. Any person arrested under section 143 of this article, who shall, before the justice before whom he shall be taken, make oath that he believes that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had before any justice of the peace of the Tangier district, may have his case removed to a justice of Dame's Quarter district.

147. Any person who shall violate the provisions of section 139 of this article, shall also be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Somerset county, and on conviction, shall be fined or imprisoned, or fined and imprisoned as aforesaid, but no person shall be twice prosecuted for the same offence.

148. The one-half of all fines imposed under the 141st section of this article shall go to the informer, and the other half shall be paid to the treasurer of the schools of said county, and the officer making the arrest of the party convicted shall be deemed the informer.

149*. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset county to issue a license to any person to sell spirituous liquors in the fourteenth election district, commonly called Lawson's district, of Somerset county.

150*. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell, with a view to profit in the way of trade, any spirituous liquors in the said fourteenth election district, under the penalty of ten dollars for each offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace for the said county, one-half to the use of the informer and the other half to the commissioners of the county for the use of the free schools in said county.