180. The commissioners of primary schools, in each year, shall make and transmit to the legislature a report embracing the same matters as shall be contained in the report of the trustees of school districts to the said commissioners.

181. The commissioners of primary schools may hold any property which may be granted to them for the use and benefit of primary schools, and such property, whether real or personal, shall be to them and their successors in office, in the same manner as if they were a body corporate.

182. The trustees of any school district may hold any property which may be vested in them for the use and benefit of their school, and such property, whether real or personal, shall be to them and their successors in office, in the same manner as if they were a body corporate.

183. And as the city of Annapolis, composing primary school district No. 38, receives no benefit of the county levy provided by the 165th section of this article, the free white male inhabitants of said district, at their annual district meeting, shall and may levy a tax on the resident inhabitants of said district for the support of primary schools therein.

184. The trustees of said school district No. 38, whenever a district meeting shall have voted a district tax, shall make a tax list which shall raise the sum voted in due proportion on all the taxable property in such district agreeably to the assessment of the last preceding county tax, and shall annex to such tax list a warrant, and deliver the same to the collector of city taxes in the city of Annapolis, which warrant shall be substantially as follows, to wit: "Anne Arundel county, ss. To —, collector of taxes in the city of Annapolis, greeting: You are hereby required and commanded to collect from each of the inhabitants of school district No. 38, the several sums of money written opposite to the name of each of said inhabitants in the annexed tax list, and within sixty days after receiving this warrant to pay the amount of the moneys by you collected into the hands of the trustees of said district, or some one of them, and take their or his receipt therefor; and if any one or more of said inhabitants shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, you
