185. And if the sums payable by any person named in such tax list shall not be paid by him, or collected by virtue of said warrant within the time therein limited, it shall be lawful for the said trustees to renew such warrant in respect to such delinquent.

186. The said collector of city taxes, in the city of Annapolis, shall be ex-officio collector of primary school taxes in and for district No. 38 aforesaid, and every primary school tax which may be voted in said district shall be collected by him, and his bond shall be liable to an action for the use of the trustees of the primary school district aforesaid, for such school tax, and a copy of said bond, under the seal of the said city, (which the said trustees shall have on demand without fee or charge,) shall be sufficient evidence of the execution thereof.

187. The trustees of primary school district number twelve and number forty-eight, may charge and collect from every parent or guardian whom they deem of sufficient ability to pay the same, a sum not exceeding one dollar per capita per month for every pupil such parent or guardian may send to said school, and may diminish or increase the same, according to the circumstances of the parent or guardian, but not to exceed the said sum of one dollar.

188. The said trustees, before they levy any such capitation tax, shall give at least six days' notice by advertisements set up at four of the most public places in said district, of their intention to levy such tax, and invite the parents or guardians of the children in the district to meet and co-operate with them in their object.

189. The capitation tax so levied and charged shall be due and collectable by the trustees at the expiration of each month, and for every pupil attending said school for one or more days in any month, his parent or guardian shall be chargeable with such tax,
