

to be removed at the expense of the person who caused the nuisance or obstruction, may cause the streets, lanes and alleys to be paved, and may cause a register to be made and kept, and from time to time corrected, of all persons entitled to vote in said town.

40. They may as often as necessary appoint an assessor of all the real and personal property in said town, and may impose and levy on said property such tax as they may deem necessary, not exceeding thirty-seven and a half cents in the hundred dollars of assessable property therein.

41. The person appointed assessor shall take the following oath before the said commissioners: "I, A. B., do swear that I will justly, faithfully and impartially execute, to the best of my skill and judgment, the duties of an assessor of property in the town of Easton, and that I will value at what I believe to be the value in ready money all real and personal property that shall come to my sight and knowledge and be properly assessable under the orders, ordinances and directions of the commissioners of said town, and make the return thereof to the said commissioners, and that therein I will spare no person for favor or affection, nor grieve any person for hatred, malice or ill will."

42*. All the property, real, personal and mixed, of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever, within the limits of the town of Easton, or owned by the inhabitants of said town and not permanently located beyond the limits thereof by law, liable to be valued and assessed, and chargeable with taxes in this State, shall be valued at its cash value and chargeable according to such valuation with the public assessment for the corporate purposes of the said town.

43*. Any assessor appointed by the commissioners of said town, shall have the power and authority to require the owner, possessor or claimant of any property made liable to valuation and assessment, to give him a full and accurate statement in writing, of his, her, or their property, as may be necessary to enable the assessor to ascertain the value thereof, the same to be under the oath of such person or persons to be administered by the assessor.

44*. If any person shall wilfully refuse, or after ten days' notice shall neglect, to render any such statement of his, her,
