

115. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by said commissioners by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be applied for the use of the town in such manner as may from time to time be directed by ordinance.

ROADS.

116. Each supervisor of roads in said county and his deputies shall call upon the taxable persons of his district at least two days before he intends working on said roads, exclusive of the day of notice and the day of meeting, and notify them of his intention and the time and place of meeting, to work said roads, what implements to bring, with carts and teams if necessary.

117. The taxables so notified shall furnish one-half of their able bodied negroes, if required, (except in time of wheat harvest,) not under eighteen or over forty-five years of age, and such utensils, carts and teams as they may have and may be required to furnish.

118. If any taxable inhabitant, when called upon as directed in the preceding section, shall, without good reason, neglect or refuse to furnish his proportion of hands, carts and teams, with the necessary utensils and implements, he shall be liable to a fine of one dollar for every hand, cart or team he may have been called upon to furnish, to be recovered at the instance of the supervisor in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace in said county, and paid to the county commissioners for the use of the roads in said county.

119. In default on the part of the taxables to furnish their proportions of hands, carts and teams, the said supervisors and their deputies may employ such persons not chargeable with taxes as they may think proper.

120. The allowance to each laborer employed upon the public roads shall be one dollar a day, and for every cart and team the sum of one dollar.

121. No supervisor shall employ more than one-half of his own able bodied negroes at any one time, nor at any other time than when he calls upon the taxables of his district, except to repair broken bridges or remove temporary obstructions in and across said roads.
