

property of the district, agreeably to the assessment of the last preceding county tax, and shall annex to such tax list the following warrant: "County of Talbot, ss. To ———, Collector of the ——— district in the county aforesaid, greeting: You are hereby required and commanded to collect from each of the inhabitants of the said district the several sums of money written opposite to the name of each of said inhabitants in the annexed tax list, and within sixty days after receiving this warrant to pay the amount of the moneys by you collected into the hands of the trustees of said district, or some one of them, and take their or his receipt therefor; and if any one or more of said inhabitants shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, you are hereby further commanded to levy on the goods and chattels of each delinquent, and make sale thereof according to law. Given under our hands and seals, this ——— day of ———, A.D.———. ———, Trustees."

162. If the sum payable by any person named in such tax list shall not be paid by him, or collected by virtue of said warrant, within the time therein limited, the trustees may renew such warrant in respect to such delinquent.

163. If the taxable inhabitants of any school district shall refuse or neglect to levy a tax as hereinbefore directed, the county commissioners shall levy such tax upon the district refusing, and the clerk of the district shall, on or before the first day of June, make out a list of all taxable inhabitants of such district, and an estimate of the costs of purchasing a site, building or repairing, or furnishing a school house (whichever may be necessary) and return the same to the county commissioners, and the said commissioners shall levy a tax upon the said taxable inhabitants, to be paid to the trustees of said school district for the purposes aforesaid.

164. The county commissioners shall also, in case of failure of any district to elect trustees for said district and a clerk, appoint a district clerk and three trustees to manage the concerns of the district.

165. They may allow such compensation to the district clerks as they may think proper, not exceeding fifteen dollars to each in any one year.
