

damaged, and assess the amount of advantage upon the property of each person benefited thereby, and make a record thereof on the books of the corporation, for the inspection of any person interested.

45. Any person may appeal from the decision of the said burgess and commissioners, in assessing such advantages, to the Circuit Court for Washington county, within the time allowed by law for appeals from judgments of justices of the peace, and shall in said court be entitled to a trial by jury, as in other cases.

46. The burgess and commissioners may collect the amounts assessed against persons benefited by opening the streets, lanes or alleys, in the same manner as taxes in said town, and the amount, when collected, shall be applied to the payment of the damages and other expenses incurred in opening said streets, lanes or alleys.

47. The said burgess and commissioners shall not levy any general tax for the purpose of opening alleys.

48. They may take up and impound any swine running at large in said town, whether they belong to the citizens of the town or not, under such regulations as they may prescribe.

49. All fines and forfeitures, under the ordinances of said corporation, shall be recoverable before the burgess, or before a justice of the peace, as small debts.

50. The sheriff of Washington county shall receive and safe keep in the jail of said county all persons who shall be committed, by the burgess or commissioners of said town, to said jail for a breach or violation of any of the ordinances of said corporation, according to the tenor of the commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of this State.

BULLET PLAYING.

51. No person shall play at bullets in the public streets of any town in said county, or any of the public roads or highways thereof.