

justice of the peace, for the use of the corporation, as small debts are.

77. The following shall be the bounds and limits of said town, viz.: Beginning in the middle of the turnpike east of the town, and at a point south nine degrees forty minutes east thirty feet distant from a stone on the north side of the turnpike, marked 82 M. to B., running first north nine degrees and forty minutes, west sixty poles to a stone marked number two; second, south eighty degrees twenty minutes west parallel with the lower end of the main street of Clearspring two hundred poles to a stone marked number three; thence third, south nine degrees forty minutes, east one hundred and fifty poles to a stone marked number four; thence fourth, north eighty degrees twenty minutes, east two hundred poles to a stone marked number five; thence fifth, nine degrees forty minutes, west ninety poles to the place of beginning.

CLERK.

78. The county commissioners of said county shall not allow or pay any account for fuel, paper or stationery for the clerk of the Circuit Court.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

79. There shall be five county commissioners for Washington county.

80. Each commissioner shall be entitled to two dollars a day for every day he shall necessarily attend to the duties of his office, and ten cents for each mile over ten miles he may travel in coming to and going from their place of meeting, once during each session.

81. They shall, at their annual meetings, appoint a fit person, a resident of said county, to be their clerk.

82. The said clerk, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, before one of said commissioners, take and subscribe the following oath: "I, A. B., do swear that as clerk to the county commissioners of Washington county, I will honestly and faithfully, to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the duties of said office, without favor, affection, or prejudice, so help me God."