INSPECTIONS—FLOUR.

163. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall biennially, on the first Monday of April, appoint an inspector of flour for Williamsport, in Washington county.

164. The said inspector may appoint one deputy, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the principal inspector.

165. The standard of flour of each degree of fineness shall be the same as the standard fixed for the city of Baltimore.

166. The inspector general of flour in the city of Baltimore, within fifteen days after the standard is fixed in said city, shall send to the inspector of the town of Williamsport a fair specimen of the standard and samples of flour, to be kept by the inspector at Williamsport, under the penalty of fifty dollars for every refusal or neglect, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, one-half to the use of the informer, the other half to the use of the State.

167. The inspector of the town of Williamsport shall, on the head or side of every cask of flour inspected by him, brand his name, the name of the town and State, the year of inspection, and the quality or grade of flour inspected.

168. He shall receive from the owner of flour by him inspected, the sum of one cent and a half, and no more, for each cask of flour he shall inspect and brand.

169. In all cases where an inspector may pronounce a flour barrel insufficient, or shall condemn said barrel, the owner of such barrel, or his agent, may either cause said barrel to be repaired or substitute a new one as the case may require, or he may make such deduction in the price of his flour, as may be mutually agreed upon between himself and the purchaser thereof.

170. No inspector of flour shall purchase, directly or indirectly, any flour by him condemned, or any flour whatsoever
