

at the discretion of the burgess and commissioners; but in no case shall any damage or expense be allowed to any proprietor of any lot by whom or by whose authority any street or alley has been closed.

197. They may direct, by ordinance, all or any of the footways in the town to be laid off and levelled and paved or repaired, with any material they may deem best, at the expense of the different proprietors of lots before which the same shall be done.

198. If the owner of any house, lot, or part of a lot, where such levelling, paving, or repairing shall be directed, shall not reside in the town, the tenant or person occupying such house, lot, or part of a lot, shall cause the same to be done, and the money so expended under the direction of the corporation shall be allowed by the owner, and deducted from the rent then due or to become due; and if the tenant or person occupying such lot shall refuse or neglect to level, pave and mend the same agreeably to the ordinance of the corporation, the same may be done by the corporation, and the expense thereof, with costs, shall be charged to and collected from the owner, by distress and sale of such property.

199. All fines and forfeitures, under the ordinances of the corporation, shall be recoverable before the burgess, or before a justice of the peace, as small debts; but no fine or forfeiture, imposed under any ordinance of said corporation, shall exceed the sum of twenty dollars.

JURORS.

200. Jurors serving in the Circuit Court for said county shall be entitled to a per diem of two dollars, and ten cents for each mile over ten miles in coming to and going from said court once during a single session thereof.

201. The county commissioners of said county shall levy a sufficient sum, in advance, to pay the jurors attending said court, promptly at the close of each term thereof.

202. The collector of said county shall, whenever any person shall present to him an order from the clerk of the Circuit Court for his attendance as a juror, pay to such person, or his order, the
