

amount due him, after deducting therefrom all charges the collector may have against such juror.

203. The clerk of the Circuit Court shall furnish each juror with an order for the amount of his per diem and mileage.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

204. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Washington county, to wit: for election district number one, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number three, four justices of the peace and four constables; for election district number four, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number five, three justices of the peace and two constables, one of which justices shall always be taken from the town of Hancock; for election district number six, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seven, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eight, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number nine, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number ten, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eleven, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number twelve, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and two constables.

205. All constables in said county shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the fee of fifty cents, six and a fourth cents per mile for every mile they have to travel after the first five miles, to deliver over to the jailer of said county any person committed thereto.

206. Whenever any constable shall find it necessary to summon any person to aid and assist in taking to jail any person committed thereto, he shall summon a constable, if there is any one convenient; and whenever a constable, or any other person, shall be summoned for that purpose, he shall be allowed fifty cents for his services, to be taxed in the costs against the party committed.