

49. The one-half of said penalty shall go to the constable by whom the same shall be collected, and the residue shall be paid by him to the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, subject to the order of the county commissioners.

50. If the inspectors shall report the enclosure in good and proper order, the expense of said inspection shall be paid by the party complaining.

FOX HUNTERS.

51*. Any person who shall be convicted of shooting any fox or foxes whilst pursued by dogs in Worcester county, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said county as other small debts are recoverable.

JURORS.

52. Each juror summoned on the regular panel of jurors to the Circuit Court for said county shall be entitled to receive for each day he shall attend as juror the sum of two dollars, and an allowance of six and a quarter cents a mile for every mile his place of residence may be distant from the place of holding said court, such mileage to be computed only for one day coming to and one day returning from said court.

53. The county commissioners of said county shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may annually be incurred by the attendance of jurymen at the Circuit Court for said county.

54. The collector of taxes for said county shall pay each juror, immediately after the termination of each term, such sum of money as he may be entitled to receive for his attendance, and a certificate, signed by the clerk of the Circuit Court, stating the number of days he may have attended, and the sum and mileage due him, shall be sufficient authority to the collector to pay the amount specified in said certificate.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

55. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in said county, to wit: for election district number one, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election