

Maryland. He received an excellent education and was admitted to the Bar in 1883. Since that time he has actively practiced his profession and has taken a leading part in many important litigations. His law offices have always been at Belair. He has for some years been president of the Second National Bank of Belair.

Mr. Robinson took a leading and active part in three sessions of the Maryland Senate, as Senator from Harford County. He served the Democratic party five times as a delegate to National Democratic Conventions and was chairman of the Maryland delegation that nominated Governor Cox for President. Mr. Robinson was also chairman of the Maryland delegation to the National Democratic Convention in New York, in 1924, which nominated John W. Davis for President. He was chairman of all the Liberty Loan committees for Harford County, and chairman of the Council of Defense for Harford County during the World War, and the Secretary of War appointed him on the commission which selected the land (35,000 acres) for the Aberdeen Proving Ground and Edgewood Arsenal.

Mr. Robinson married, September 17, 1884, Clara C. Cain, also of Harford County. They have four children living, one deceased.

In 1923 Mr. Robinson was elected Attorney-General and in 1926 he was re-elected for a term of four years.

---

The Adjutant General: MILTON A. RECKORD (Democrat), Harford County.

Milton A. Reckord, the twenty-second Adjutant General of Maryland, was born in Harford County December 28th, 1879. He is the son of the late John H. and Lydia A. Reckord.

General Reckord's connection with the Maryland National Guard dates from February 15th, 1901, when he enlisted as a private in Company D, 1st Infantry. He served as an enlisted man until December 28th, 1904, when he was commissioned Captain of that company.

On September 27th, 1906, he was commissioned a Major of Infantry and assigned to command a battalion of the First Infantry.

He served on the Mexican Border and commanded the Second Battalion of the First Infantry throughout this tour of duty.