The Governor, with the consent of the Senate, appoints nine Regents for a term of nine years from the first Monday in June.

The first appointments were made in 1916 for terms of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 years, and as these terms expire a successor is appointed for a full term of nine years. (Ch. 372, 1916.)

This Board of Regents displaces the old Board of Trustees of the Maryland State College.

Under Chapter 480, Acts 1920, the old University of Maryland was, on July 1, 1920, consolidated with the Maryland State College, under the former name.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND.

The University of Maryland is located at College Park, in Prince George's County, Maryland, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, eight miles from Washington and thirty-two miles from Baltimore. At least eight trains a day from each city stop at College Park, which makes the place easily accessible from all parts of the State.

The campus fronts on the Baltimore and Washington Boulevard. The suburban town of Hyattsville is two miles to the south, and Laurel is ten miles to the north on the same road. Access to these towns and to Washington may be had by steam and electric railways and busses.

The Professional Schools of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Dentistry, and Law are located in Baltimore at the corner of Lombard and Greene Streets.

Administration.

The government of the University is vested by law in a Board of Regents, consisting of nine members appointed by the Governor each for a term of nine years. The administration of the University is vested in the President. The University Senate acts in an advisory capacity to the President.
