

He is a member of the American Bar Association, the Maryland State and the Baltimore City Bar Associations; he is also a member of the Elks, Moose, Eagles, Knights of Columbus and holds membership in other clubs.

On November 20th, 1920, Mr. O'Connor married M. Eugenia Byrnes, also of Baltimore. They have four children. The family resides at 302 Chancery Road, Guilford.

---

Secretary of State: THOMAS L. DAWSON (Republican), Rockville, Maryland.

Thomas L. Dawson was born September 15th, 1892, at Rockville, Maryland. He is the son of the late Thomas Dawson and Mary Alice (Peter) Dawson. The late Thomas Dawson practiced law at Rockville until his death (September 24, 1924) taking an active and leading part in civic and political affairs in his native county and State, and in early life served as Clerk of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County.

Mr. Dawson's (Maternal) grandfather, the late George Peter, also a prominent lawyer of Montgomery County, served as President of the Maryland State Senate 1888-89.

Thomas L. Dawson was educated in the public schools of Montgomery County, the Rockville Academy and Georgetown University Law School. Admitted to the Bar in 1915, he became associated with his father in the practice of law under the firm name of Dawson and Dawson. During the World War he was a Lieutenant and assigned as an instructor in the Central Officer's Training School, Camp Lee, Virginia. In November, 1919, he was elected State's Attorney for Montgomery County and served in that office for four years, retiring to private practice.

On April 17th, 1922, Mr. Dawson married Anne Frazier Davidson, of Catlettsburg, Kentucky. They have two children.

---

Executive Secretary: ROBERT IRVIN, (Republican), Baltimore, Md.

Robert Irvin, son of David and Parcilla Morgan Irvin, was born in Baltimore and educated in the schools and high schools in the city. In 1915 he began a newspaper career with the old Baltimore American and then went with the Baltimore News. He served throughout the entire World War with Maryland troops and at the close of the combat was Regimental Sergeant Major with the 37th Regiment of