

- 1 Jac. 22. ' No Butcher shall by himself, or any other, use the Trade of a Tanner, while he useth the Trade of a Butcher, upon pain to forfeit 6 s. 8 d. Butcher.
' per diem.
- 1 Jac. 22. ' No person shall Tan any Leather, nor take any benefit or advantage § 2.
' by that Craft, except he have been brought up and instructed therein, Who may be a Tanner.
' as an Apprentice, or Covenant, or Hired-servant, by seven years; and ' except the Wife, and such person as shall marry the Wife or Daughter to ' whom he shall leave a Tan-house and Fats; and except such Son or Sons
' as have used the Trade four years, upon pain to lose the Leather or the
' just value thereof.
- 1 Jac. 22. ' No person using the Trade of a Tanner shall use any Trade exercised Trades.
' in the cutting of Leather, upon Pain to forfeit the Leather, or just value.
- 1 Jac. 22. ' No person shall buy, contract for, bespeak any Rough hide, or Buying.
' Calve-skin, except such person as may use the Trade of a Tanner, and ' shall Tan the same; or such persons as shall Tan the same, except salt
' Hides for Ships, upon pain to forfeit the Leather, or just value.
- 1 Jac. 22. ' No person shall forestal Hides, or buy them, but in Fair or Market, § 9.
' except of the owner that killed for his own use, upon pain to forfeit for Forestal-
' every Hide 6 s. 8 d. ling-
- 1 Jac. 22. ' No person may buy, contract for, or bespeak any unwrought Leather, § 4.
' but he that will and shall work out the same into Wares, upon pain to for- Buying.
' feit the Leather, or value thereof. Leather.
- M. 16 Car. 1. Cro. 425. Lib. meo inter Currier.
1 Cro. 425. ' Upon which Clause a Case was M. 16 Car. 1. Cro. 425. Lib. meo inter
' Lodge & Hollivel, where a Currier bought Hides, and Curried them
' with Oyl and Tallow, and things necessary; and after shaved and died
' them, and sold them to a Shoemaker, and it was adjudged, this was an ' offence against this Clause of the Statute, and is against the meaning of
' 5 & 6 E. 6. 15 & 27 El. 16. & 5 El. 8. For a Currier may not buy and sell by
' wholesale.
- 1 Jac. 22. ' Persons using to convert Leather into Wares. may buy at Leaden-
and Girdlers may sell their Necks and Shreds of Tanned Leather. hal Gird- lers.
Lime.
- ' No person using Tanning, shall suffer a Hide or Skin to lie untill
' it be over limed.
- ' Nor shall put any Hide or Skin in Tanfats, before the Lime be well Tanner.
' fokened and wrought out of them.
- ' Nor put or use any Stuff about the Tanning of Leather, but Ash- § 5.
' Bark, Oak-Bark, Tapwort, Malt, Meal, Lime, Culver-dung, or Hen- Material
' dung.
- ' Nor suffer Leather to lie or hang wet until it be frozen.
- ' Nor dry or parch the Leather with heat of Fire, or the Summer Parching.
Sun.
- ' Nor shall Tan a putrefied or rotten Hide.
- ' Nor suffer the Hides for utter Sole-Leather to lie in the Woozes any Woozes.
' less than Twelve Moneths.
- ' Nor the Hide for upper Leather, to lie in the Woozes less than ' Nine Moneths.
- ' Nor shall negligently work their Leather in the Woozes, but shall Forfeits.
' renew and strengthen their Woozes as often as is requisite. Upon
' pain to forfeit every Hide of Ox, Steer, Bull, or Cow, otherwise
' wrought and put to sale, or the value.
- ' No persons shall raise with any mixtures any Hide for Bark, bend Raising.
' Leather, Clouting Leather, or other Sole-Leather, except the Hide be with mix- tures.
' sufficient