

Felony, it seemeth any one Justice of Peace alone may bail a Prisoner; (see the Titles, Affray, Dying, and Surety for the Peace;) except where some particular Statute shall otherwise prescribe, as in titulo Counterfeitors. See more of Bailment hic postea.

23 H. 6. 10. Sheriffs, under-Sheriffs, Coroners, Stewards, Bailiffs, Keepers of Prisons One Justice. and other Officers, shall let out of Prison all persons by them arrested, or being in their Custody by force of any Writ, Bill or Warrant in any Action personal, or by cause of any Indictment of Trespass upon reasonable Sureties of sufficient persons within that County to keep their day, as such Writs, Bills or Warrants require; Except persons Arrested by Cap. Utlagat. or Excommunication or Surety of the Peace, or committed to Ward by special command of any Justices or Vagabonds, or shall pay the party treble damages and forfeit Forty pounds, a Moiety to the King, the other to the Prosecutor, and the Justices of the Peace have power to hear and determine.

C H A P. XIII.

Bankrupt.

21 Jac. 19. IF any Bankrupt shall upon his Examination be found to have fraudulently conveyed away Goods, Chattels, Lands, Tenements, Offices, Fees, or any of his Estate to the value of Twenty pounds or more, to the end to hinder the Execution of the Statute, or to delay his Creditors of the same, and shall not upon his Examination discover, and if it be in his power, deliver a particular thereof to the Commissioners, or that cannot make appear to them some casual loss, whereby he is disabled to pay what he oweth, may be Indicted for the same at the Sessions of the County; or place where he becomes a Bankrupt, and being thereof convicted, be set in the Pillory for two hours, and have one of his Ears nailed to the Pillory and cut off. § 1. Punishment of falsehood.

C H A P. XIV.

Bows and Arrows.

7 H. 4. 7. Justices of Peace in their Sessions have power to hear and determine all Offences against the Statute of 33 H. 8. c. 9. touching the use, ordering and having of Bows, and by their discretion to examine all persons lacking or not having Bows, Shafts and Arrows according to the form of that Statute. The several branches, whereof inasmuch as Bows are not out of use, I have forborn to abridge. § 1.

All Heads for Arrows shall be well boiled or brased and hardened at the points with Steel, and if any do contrary, they shall forfeit them to the King, and make fine at the Kings will, and Justices of Peace shall inquire of their Offences, and punish them as aforesaid.

See also the Statute of 8 El. 10. touching Bows.

C H A P. XV.

Brewers and Bakers.

A Baker that observeth not the Assize of Bread, shall be put into the Pillory, and shall not be redeemed thence for Silver or Gold. 31 H. 1. § 1.

cap. 7. A Brewer that breaks the Assize of Ale or Beer, shall for the first § 2. and.