pred' Gen', viz. quilibet eor' corpus pro corpore, quod idem R. B. personaliter comparebit cor' pres. Just' & sociis suis Just' Dom' Regis ad prox' general' Session' Paris in Com' pred' tenend' ad stand' recte in Cur', (si quis versus enre loqui voluerit) de diversis Felonie & Transgr' unde idem R.B. iudicatus exci-stis (ut dicitur) & ad respond' dicto Regi de eisd' prout debet, &c. Vide ante tit. Bailment, that it must be upon a certain Sum of Money.

And here Stare recte in Curia is, when he that standeth at the Bar hath no Man to object against him.

Yet note, upon this last manner of Bailment the Mainpernors shall be only fined if the Prisoner makerth default, 21 H. 7. 20.

Before the Statute of Marl. cap. 27. if one arrested or in prison for Felony had been bailed, and at the day the Prisoner would not answer, but betook himself to his Clergy, &c. then his Mainpernors were amerced, &c. But now by the Statute, if they have the Body at the day they shall not be amerced, although the Prisoner will not answer, &c. Neither shall they forfeit their Recognizance, if they have the Body of the Prisoner there, although the Prisoner shall not answer, &c. and yet the words of the Recognizance or Bailment are usually, Ad respond' dicto Dom' Regi, &c. in supra. But these words seem to be of course.

Alias, to bail a Prisoner for the Peace.

MEmorand', &c. A.B. de, &c. D.E. de, &c. & E.F. de, &c. venerant cor' me M.D.&c. & maniceper pro R.B.de, &c. quod ipse Pavem geret erga omni' popl' Dom' Regis, & priuipne erga I.S. sub pena cuiuslibet Manucaptoris 20 l. & pred' R. B. sub pena 40 l. & quod pred' R. B. comparebit coram Just' Dom' Regis ad prox' general' Session' Pacis pro Com' pred' tenend', &c.

The Liberate to deliver a Prisoner committed for Felony.

Lamb 342 E. F. and D. E. Esquines, two of the Justices, &c. to the Keeper of his Majesties Gaol in C. &c. Greeting. Forasmuch as F. G. &c. Labourer, had before us found sufficient Mainprise to appear before the Justices of Gaol-delivery, at the next general Gaol-delivery to be holden in the said County, there to answer to such things as shall be then on the behalf of our said Sovereign Lord objected against him, and namely to the felonious taking of two Sheep, (for the suspicion whereof he was taken and committed to your said Gaol:) We command you on the behalf of our Sovereign Lord, that if the said F. G. do remain in your said Gaol for the said cause, and for none other, then you forbear to grieve or detain him any longer, but that you deliver him thence, and suffer him to go at large, and that upon the pain will fall thereon. Given under our Seals this, &c.
