Process. CHAP. CXCIH V. 132.

THE Forms of Process upon Indictment of Trespas, which also the Justices of peace out of their Sessions may in some few cases make out against Offenders.

Note, That as the Authority of making Process upon Indictments is given by express words in the Commission to the Justices of peace in their Sessions; so it is given by express words in some Statutes to the Justices of the peace (yea to one Justice of the peace) out of their Sessions, to make out Process upon Indictments found (before them) against Offenders, or upon Information against them, as if they were indicted of Trespas in Sessions, as you may see here tit. Forcible Entry, & tit. Sheriffs antea.
