

- respectively may examine complaints against Collectors or other refractory Persons failing to give obedience hereunto, or acting in disturbance or obstruction of the Premises, and bind them over to the next Quarter-Sessions.
- Treasurer. The said respective Justices may appoint a Treasurer to receive the Money from the said Collectors, and pay it over according to their Orders made at the said respective General Sessions of the Peace; and may agree and article yearly with such as they shall employ in the said service, and take security of them for the faithful performance thereof. Ibid.
- Persons employed in the Border Service, that shall wilfully neglect to apprehend or bring to Trial any of the said Moss-Troopers, shall be disabled to manage or take upon them the said employment, and be fined and imprisoned by the Justices of the Peace at their General Sessions. Ibid.
- The Justices may lessen the charge, if they see cause. Ibid.
- Note, this Statute of 13 & 14 Car. 2. was discontinued, but is by the Statute of 29 & 30 Car. 2. revived, and to continue from thenceforth for seven years; and from thence to the end of the first Sessions of the next Parliament. 29 & 30 Car. 2. c. 2.
- Security. The said Justices of Peace of Northumberland and Cumberland shall at their respective Quarter-Sessions, take security of such as they employ in the said service, for the preservation of the said Counties from Theft and Rapine, to answer the Damages sustained by their default, and to pay and satisfy the same within four months after proof thereof made by the Oath of one Witness at the next Quarter-Sessions, so as the Goods stolen be entred in one of the Books to be kept for that purpose, within forty eight hours after they shall be stolen; And Books shall be kept for that end in every Market Town of the said Counties, and at such other places; and by such Persons, as the said Justices at their General Sessions shall order. 29 & 30 Car. 2. c. 2.
- Books. The said Justices shall yearly or every two years at furthest, in open Court appoint Persons to be employed in the said service. Ibid.
- Sacrament. Every Person so employed, or as Treasurer for the said service, shall receive the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, according to the usage of the Church of England, in some publick Church upon some Sunday within three months after they shall enter on such employment, and deliver a Certificate thereof to the next Quarter-Sessions, and take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and make and subscribe the Declaration appointed by 25 Car. 2. cap. 2. under the Penalties and Forfeitures by the said Act appointed. Ibid.
- Oaths. But this Statute of 29 & 30 Car. 2. relates altogether to the above-said Statute 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 22. and so is but temporary as that is, viz. to continue but for seven years, and from thence until the end of the first Session of the next Parliament.
- At the end of Chap. 71. add ibid.*
- Disarming Papists. Any two or more Justices of Peace that know or suspect, or shall be informed that any Person is, or is suspected to be a Papist, shall tender to such Persons the Declaration set forth in an Act of Parliament made 13 Car. 2. entitled, An Act for the more effectual preserving the Kings Person and Government by disabling Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament, to be by him made, repeated and subscribed. And if such Person shall refuse to make, repeat and subscribe the same, or shall refuse to appear before the said Justices for the making, repeating and subscribing the same, upon notice to him given, or left at his usual place of abode by any Person authorized in that behalf, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said two Justices, such Person shall from thenceforth be liable and subject to all the Penalties, &c. hereafter in this Act mentioned. 1 Will. & Mar. c. 15.
- Names of Persons and Places to be certified. Also the said Justices of Peace shall certify the Name, Surname and place of Abode of every Person so refusing or neglecting to make, &c. the said Declaration, or refusing to appear before them for the same: As also of every Person who shall make, repeat and subscribe the same at the next Quarter-Sessions, to be then recorded by the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk. Ibid.
- What Arms a Papist may keep in his House. No Papist, or reputed Papist so refusing or making default, as aforesaid, shall keep in his House, or in the possession of any person to his use any Arms, Gunpowder or Ammunition (other than such necessary Weapons as shall be allowed him by order of the Justices of the Peace at their General Quarter-Sessions for the defence of his House or Person.) And that any two or more Justices of the Peace by Warrants under their Hands and Seals, may empower any Persons in the
