

the day time with the assistance of the Constable, &c. to search for Arms, &c. which shall be in the custody of any such Papist, or reputed Papist, and seize the same for the use of their Majesties, which the said Justices shall at the next Quarter-Sessions deliver in open Court to the use aforesaid.

ibid. Every Papist or Papist reputed who shall not within ten days after such refusal or making default, discover or deliver up to some of their Majesties Justices of Peace, all such Arms, Weapons, &c. which he shall have in his House, &c. or shall hinder any person lawfully authorized to search for and seize the same, that every person so offending shall be committed to the common Gaol, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Justices of Peace, without Bail or Mainprize for three months, and shall forfeit the said Arms, and treble the value to use of their Majesties, to be appraised by the said Justices. within what time to discover them.

ibid. Any person that shall conceal, or be privy, aiding or assisting to the concealing or knowing thereof, shall not discover the same to some of their Majesties Justices of Peace, shall be committed to the Gaol, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two of his Majesties Justices of Peace, without Bail or Mainprize for the space of three months, and forfeit the treble value of the said Arms. Aiding or assisting in concealing.

ibid. If any person shall discover any such Arms, &c. so as the same may be seized for their Majesties use, the Justices of Peace upon delivery of the same at their General Quarter-Sessions shall have power, as a Reward for such a Discovery, by order of Sessions to allow to him a Sum of Mony amounting to the full value of the Arms, &c. so discovered, the said Sum to be assessed by the judgment of the said Justices at their Sessions, and to be levied by distress and sale of the Goods of the person offending, rendering the overplus, &c. to the Owner. But if after default the Offender shall submit to the Justices of Peace at their Quarter-Sessions, and in open Court make, repeat and subscribe the said Declaration contained in the said Act of 30 Car. 2. and take the several Oaths contained in an Act made in this present Parliament, entituled, An Act for removing and preventing all Questions and Disputes concerning the assembling and sitting of this present Parliament; He shall be discharged of all Disabilities and Forfeitures by reason of his refusal or default as aforesaid. Reward for discovery.

ibid. No Papist or reputed Papist refusing or making default as aforesaid, after the fifteenth of May 1689. shall keep any Horse above the value of 5 l. And that any two or more Justices of the Peace, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals may authorize any person with the assistance of the Constable, &c. to search for and seize such Horses to the use of their Majesties: And if any person shall conceal or be aiding and assisting in concealing such Horses after the said fifteenth day of May, such person shall be committed to prison by Warrant as aforesaid, without Bail or Mainprize for three months, and forfeit to their Majesties treble the value of such Horses. Search for Arms.

At the end of Chapter 78. add this.

30 Car. 2. c. 4. If any person who was released out of prison by virtue of the Act of 30 Car. 2. shall at any time be found or suspected by any of his Creditors to have in his own hands, or in the hands of others, or to his use, or in trust for him, any Mony, Goods or Chattels in value over and above what he is allowed to have by the Statute of 30 Car. 2. or by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 20. other than such Goods in his Shop or Ware-house, as he shall have been credited, or trusted with since the time of his discharge, and for what he shall be really indebted: and do not upon convenient demand pay his Debts therewith as far as the same will reach, That then at the request of any Creditor, the Oaths in the said Acts mentioned, shall be tendered by him again, by any Justice of Peace impowred by the said Act of 30 Car. 2. to minister it, or by any Judge of the Court, wherein there is judgment against him, which if he refuse to take he shall be remanded to prison in Execution: See these Statutes and Oaths at large. Prisoners. Oath.

31 Car. 2. c. 2. Persons Subjects of this Realm committed for any Crime, shall not be removed into Custody of any other Officer unless by some legal Writ; or where the Prisoner is delivered to the Constable, &c. to be carried to Gaol, or sent by any Judge or Justice of Peace his Order to a Work-house, or removed within the County in order to his Trial or Discharge, or in case of Fire, Infection or Necessity. And Persons signing any Warrant for removal, contrary hereunto, or countersigning the same, and the Officer or Officers that obey or execute such Warrant Removal of Prisoners.