

CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

Clerk of the Court of Appeals: JAMES A. YOUNG (Democrat), Cumberland, Maryland.

James A. Young was born at Keyser, West Virginia, May 4, 1879. Two years later his parents moved into Allegany County. He attended the public schools in Barton, Moscow Mills and Cumberland. He learned the job printing trade in the plant of the Evening Times in Cumberland, and for a while was foreman, and then engaged in the job printing business in Cumberland.

On June 26, 1900, Mr. Young married Miss Daisy Wilson White, a native of Cumberland. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and is actively identified with several fraternal societies.

Mr. Young comes from a prominent family, his father, John W. Young, having been twice elected Clerk of Court for Allegany County as a Democrat, although the county is strongly Republican. He has held responsible political positions, having been clerk of the Board of Election Supervisors, and in 1921 was elected a Road Director for Allegany County.

In the election of 1923, Mr. Young was elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, whereupon he moved to Annapolis to devote all of his time to the duties of his office.

In 1926, he was re-elected for a term of four years.

In 1930, Mr. Young was re-elected for a term of four years.

In 1934, he was again re-elected for another term of four years.
