

St. Mary's Industrial School for Boys of the City of Baltimore was incorporated in 1866. It is situated in the western part of the city on Wilkens, Caton and De Sota Road.

This school is under the personal management of the Xaverian Brothers, a body of men who devote their lives to the education of boys and young men. Brother Liguori is the present Superintendent, and all communications should be addressed to him.

The State of Maryland appropriates $60,000 annually towards the maintenance of the boys sent to the school from the various counties of the State. The wards of the City of Baltimore are paid for by the city at the rate of $16% per month.

Terms of office begin on June 1, to continue for three years.

The Governor without need of consent of the Senate appoints five members of the Board of Managers each year for a term of three years. The Board of Managers of the Cheltenham School for Boys shall consist of the Governor Ex-Officio for the time being and fifteen members named in the Act.

The School received colored male minors on commitment of any Court, Juvenile Court, or Justice of the Peace, but by the provisions of the Act the City of Baltimore or the Counties from which said minors are committed are required to pay to the State Treasury the sum of $200.00, per annum, for their care and training and the remaining amount necessary is paid from the State Treasury. School classes are available through the eighth grade and Practical Arts Courses in agricultural and industrial lines. Related subjects classes are included in the practical arts courses.

Communications should be addressed to the Superintendent of the School, Cheltenham, Maryland.
