Comptroller of the Treasury-Elect: J. MILLARD TAWES (Democrat), Crisfield, Maryland.

J. Millard Tawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tawes, was born in Crisfield, Somerset County, Maryland, on April 8, 1894. He was educated in the public schools of Crisfield, after which he entered the Wilmington Conference Academy. He graduated from this institution in 1912 and later entered Sadlers Bryant and Straton Business College in Baltimore where he completed a full course in banking and accountancy. His first employment was with his father who was then engaged in an extensive lumber manufacturing business. During this time he was also associated with the active management of The Tawes-Gibson Packing Company, a seafood canning concern. During the period of the World War he was Secretary and Treasurer of the Crisfield Shipbuilding Company, Inc., and served in this capacity until the corporation was liquidated at the conclusion of the war. In 1920 he organized the Tawes Baking Company, one of the largest industries of its kind on the Delmarva Peninsula and has been Secretary and Treasurer of this concern since its beginning. Mr. Tawes is director of many business enterprises, including the Bank of Crisfield and
