INTERSTATE COMMISSION ON THE POTOMAC RIVER BASIN
(Ch. 320—Acts of 1939)

Chapter 320 of the Acts of 1939 created a commission consisting of three (3) members to act jointly with commissions appointed for like purposes by the State of West Virginia, the Commonwealths of Pennsylvania and Virginia, and the District of Columbia, and an additional three (3) members to be appointed by the President of the United States and which, together with the other commissions appointed as above mentioned, shall constitute and be known as the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin. The said commission for the State of Maryland shall consist of the Governor of the state and two members to be named by the Governor who shall be actual residents in the Potomac River Drainage Basin. The terms of the members appointed by the Governor shall be two years, the first of such appointments of two members to be made June 1, 1939, and they shall serve without compensation, but shall be paid their actual expenses incurred in and incident to the performance of their duties.

BOARD OF BOILER RULES
(Ch. 718—Acts of 1939)

The Board of Boiler Rules shall consist of three (3) members, two of whom shall be appointed to the board by the Governor, one for a term of two years and one for a term of three years. At the expiration of their respective terms of office, their successors, identifiable with the same interests, respectively as hereinafter provided, shall be appointed for a term of four years each. Upon the death or incapacity of any member, the Governor shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term likewise with a representative of the same interests with which his predecessor was associated. Of these two appointed members, one shall be representative of the owners and users of boilers within the state, one a representative of a boiler inspection insurance company licensed to do business within the state. The third member shall be the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics, who shall be the chairman at his discretion, or the board shall elect one of its members as chairman, and shall meet at least twice yearly at the State Capitol or other place designated by the board.
