The State Tax Commission was created by the Act of 1914, Chapter 841, superseding the State Tax Commissioner, an office which was established in 1878, with functions limited virtually to the assessment of the shares of domestic corporations and national banks, the gross receipts of certain classes of corporations, and distilled spirits. Greatly enlarged jurisdiction and responsibilities were conferred upon the State Tax Commission by the act creating it and by subsequent legislation. In addition to the duties formerly exercised by the State Tax Commissioner, the Commission is empowered to "supervise the administration of the assessment and tax laws of Maryland and of each county or city thereof"; "to enforce and execute a continuing method of assessment and to require that all property in the State be reviewed for assessment at least once in every five years," but not necessarily by reassessment of all property in the same year; to act as an appellate tribunal to which all appeals from assessments of real and personal property made by local assessing bodies must be taken; to assess the rolling stock of railroad companies; "to participate in any proceeding in any court wherein any assessment or taxation question is involved."

The Commission appoints for each of the counties a Supervisor of Assessments who has the status of chief assessor in the county, with power also to appeal to the Commission from any assessments or rulings made by the County Commissioners. The supervisors are appointed from a list of five nominees submitted by the County Commissioners. They serve during good behavior and are removable by the State Tax Commission "for incompetency or other cause." Their salaries are paid by the respective counties and are graded according to the aggregate value of property assessed in the county. A supervisor is also appointed for Baltimore City with important duties of investigation. The Commission may order the appointment of local assessors to be made by the County Commissioners and may dismiss such assessors for cause, and, in its discretion, may fill any vacancy thus created.

The State Tax Commission has charge of the qualification and or registration of foreign corporations doing business in Maryland. In addition to determining the amount of the annual franchise tax, which is based on the amount of capital employed by them as of January 1st, Chapter 387 of the Acts of 1939 requires the Commission, beginning with the year 1940, to assess the tangible personal property
