

in the plant of the Evening Times in Cumberland, and for a while was foreman, and then engaged in the job printing business in Cumberland.

On June 26, 1900, Mr. Young married Miss Daisy Wilson White, a native of Cumberland. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and is actively identified with several fraternal societies.

Mr. Young comes from a prominent family, his father, John W. Young, having been twice elected Clerk of Court for Allegany County as a Democrat, although the county is strongly Republican. He has held responsible political positions, having been clerk of the Board of Election Supervisors, and in 1921 was elected a Road Director for Allegany County.

In the election of 1923, Mr. Young was elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and has been reelected at each succeeding election since. After his first election he moved to Annapolis in order that he might devote all of his time to the duties of his office.
