The Unemployment Compensation Board was created by Chapter 1 of the Acts of the General Assembly, Special Session of 1936, as amended by Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1937.

The three members of the Board were designated by the Legislature for respective terms of six years, four years and two years. Upon expiration of the term of each member, the Governor shall appoint his successor for a term of six years.

The Unemployment Compensation Board is charged with the duty of administering the Unemployment Compensation Law, under which two coordinate divisions shall be established: The State of Maryland Employment Service and the Unemployment Compensation Division. The Unemployment Compensation Division shall, first, collect contributions from employers covered under the Unemployment Compensation Law and, secondly, after January 3, 1938, shall make payment of benefits to eligible individuals, that is, those who have accumulated certain wage credits and become unemployed through no fault of their own.

The Employment Service, affiliated with the United States Employment Service, Department of Labor, shall establish and maintain free public employment offices for the purpose of finding work for unemployed individuals and shall receive claims for unemployment compensation benefits, forwarding such claims to the Unemployment Compensation Division.

The expense of administering the Unemployment Compensation Division is not a burden upon the employers contributing to the
