

unemployment compensation fund, or upon the taxpayers of the State, as the funds for administering expenses are supplied by the (Federal) Social Security Board. The expense of administering the Maryland State Employment Service is borne in a large measure by the Social Security Board and in part by the United States Department of Labor, with an appropriation by the State of Maryland.

—o—

COMMISSION ON COMPULSORY HOSPITAL INSURANCE

(Joint resolution 12—Acts of 1939)

The Governor is requested to appoint a Commission, of not more than eleven (11) members to make a careful study and investigation of the question of Compulsory Hospital Insurance and to report to the General Assembly on or before January 15, 1941, any recommendations on the subject, together with legislation to make such recommendations effective.

—o—

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Chapter 525—Acts of 1941

Richard F. Cleveland, Chairman.....Baltimore
 Hon. William C. Coleman.....Baltimore
 John W. Farrell.....Baltimore
 Mrs. Minier Hostetler.....Rockville

Consultants:

Dr. Earl R. Moses.....Baltimore
 Rabbi Bernard Lander.....Baltimore
 Joseph R. Byrnes, Secretary.....Baltimore

AN ACT to create a Commission to study and investigate the entire subject of delinquent and dependent children and to define its powers and duties.

The Governor shall appoint five persons who shall constitute a Commission to be known as the "Commission on Juvenile Delinquency". The members of said Commission shall consist of persons thoroughly qualified by experience and knowledge in the general field of Juvenile Delinquency and shall serve without compensation. The Commission shall have the power to inquire into the laws and systems in effect in other States for the management, care and treatment of delinquent and dependent children.

—o—

MARYLAND PUBLICITY COMMISSION

State Office Building, Annapolis, Md.

(Acts of 1939—Chapter 745)

This Commission was created by virtue of Senate Resolution 56 of the 1939 Legislature, which authorized the Governor to name five members, one of whom was to be designated as Chairman to serve with the following Ex-Officio members: The Governor, Chairman of the Conservation Commission, Chairman of the State Game and Inland Fish Commission and the State Forester.

The Commission is specifically instructed in its duties in publicizing the recreational attractions of the State and its natural resources. The Commission is empowered to name employees to handle its work.

Members of the Commission are:

Ex-Officio Members: